NYU-Poly students are welcome to participate in some of the Welcome Week activities at Washington Square.

Please arrive at least 30 minutes prior to an event as they tend to fill up quickly. Take the A or C train to West 4th Street/ Washington Square. Some events require tickets. Please contact NYU’s Student Resource Center: Kimmel Center - 60 Washington Sq. - Suite 210 - 212-998-4411

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>9:00AM</td>
<td>Morning Run in NYC&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center Lobby&lt;br&gt;Are you an accomplished runner? Or do you want to get in shape in the city? Our students will guide you every step of the way on this morning run and discussion of the best places to run in NYC.</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:00AM</td>
<td>Green Walking Tour&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center Lobby&lt;br&gt;The environmental movement is thriving both at NYU and in New York City. On this walking tour, you’ll discover various hubs of environmental activity in the neighborhoods surrounding your new home, from community gardens to bike stores to food co-ops. We'll visit the greenest places to eat, shop, and hang out, encountering organic produce, radical books, and down-to-earth tree huggers along the way.</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00AM</td>
<td>On the Go: Navigating the Subway, Bus and Campus Transportation Systems&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center 808&lt;br&gt;So you want to ride the subway without looking like a tourist? Come and learn what to do, what not to do, the cheapest way to ride, and how to make yourself the safest possible rider when you use New York City buses, subways, and trains. Also learn how to benefit from NYU’s Campus Transportation Service trolleys, buses, and vans, and how to ride FREE by just showing your NYUCard!</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00AM</td>
<td>Safety in the City&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center 803&lt;br&gt;New to the City? Don't be afraid, but don't be a victim either! Find out about ways to reduce your chances of becoming a victim of crime. Learn about crime prevention series available to NYU students, as well as how to know &quot;what to look for.&quot; Presented by the Office of Public Safety.</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00AM</td>
<td>Smart Money Management&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center 909&lt;br&gt;Experts estimate that most American consumers waste 20%-30% of their money due to poor spending habits and poor planning - students are no different! Presented by the NYU FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, the program will show you how to create a spending plan, explain how you can set realistic goals, highlight several ways you can track your spending, and expose budget busters that could destroy your spending plan.</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12:00PM</td>
<td>Lunch and Stories with Holocaust Survivors&lt;br&gt;Bronfman Center&lt;br&gt;Brighten the day of a Holocaust survivor with your laughter and friendship. Share lunch, stories and make new friends. Limited space available, please register online at www.nyu.edu/bronfman</td>
<td>7 East 10th Street</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>New York Cares and Service in the City&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center 802&lt;br&gt;Are you looking to get involved with service programs while at NYU? Are you looking to see how you can work within the NYC community to help make a difference? Come join New York Cares to explore the ways that you can make a difference as a New York Cares volunteer and to learn how to sign up for service projects and start volunteering!</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Small Wallet; Big City&lt;br&gt;Kimmel Center 900 Series&lt;br&gt;New York City is an expensive place to live, but also a great place to find a bargain. Learn how to live cheaply and comfortably in NYC. From cheap eats to bargain shopping, arts, and entertainment, and believe it or not, FREE things to do. Great things when you're on a limited budget!</td>
<td>60 Washington Square South</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
12:30PM
On the Go: Navigating the Subway, Bus and Campus Transportation Systems
Kimmel Center 808  60 Washington Square South
So you want to ride the subway without looking like a tourist? Come and learn what to do, what not to do, the cheapest way to ride, and how to make yourself the safest possible rider when you use New York City buses, subways, and trains. Also learn how to benefit from NYU’s Campus Transportation Service trolleys, buses, and vans, and how to ride FREE by just showing your NYUCard!

1:00PM
Guess the Straight Person
Kimmel Center 802  60 Washington Square South
Join us for this interactive and fun program where you the audience member pose questions to a panel of NYU queer and ally students, trying to determine which panelist identifies as “straight.” We will also discuss ways in which everyone can be allies to the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender community.

Improv Comedy Workshop
Kimmel Center 914  60 Washington Square South
Love Comedy? Did you check out the student comedy night and wish it had been you on stage!? Join members of NYU’s Dangerbox to learn improv games and exercises that’ll have you boasting skills better than any comedian around town!

Small Wallet; Big City
Kimmel Center 900 Series  60 Washington Square South
New York City is an expensive place to live, but also a great place to find a bargain. Learn how to live cheaply and comfortably in NYC. From cheap eats to bargain shopping, arts, and entertainment, and believe it or not, FREE things to do. Great things when you're on a limited budget!

2:00PM
Bobst 101
Bobst Library Lobby  70 Washington Square South
This tour is designed to give you a snapshot view of the layout of Bobst Library, familiarize you with the library's key collections, and inform you about online and in-library services. Information on more detailed classes offered during the semester will also be provided.

Have We “MET”?
Kimmel Center 800 Series  60 Washington Square South
Get the inside scoop on The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the largest museum in the Western Hemisphere, right here in your new hometown. Find out about events, opportunities for involvement, and careers with Met staff and members of its College Group at the Met.

Renting, Your Rights, and Avoiding Student Scams
Kimmel Center 808  60 Washington Square South
Participants will learn helpful terms, procedures, and strategies to secure and maintain a successful off-campus living situation. A Tenant Advocacy professional will speak on the potential hazards of renting in New York, providing cautionary advice and information. Market data, advisories, neighborhood profiles, and tenants' rights resources will be provided. Presented by the Off-Campus Housing Office.

Wise Use of Credit Cards
Kimmel Center 803  60 Washington Square South
Using your credit cards wisely might be the most important and beneficial action that you can make towards financial health. The reason for this is simple: high interest rates on credit cards can cost you more than money if you find yourself unable to make your payments on time. So, if you've never had a credit card or had one for years, this workshop will help you in your decision making in using credit in today's economic climate.

3:00PM
Global U: Studying Abroad at NYU
Kimmel Center 914  60 Washington Square South
NYU offers its students numerous study abroad opportunities. Attend this session to learn specific details about NYU’s university-wide academic centers in in Berlin, Buenos Aires, Florence, Ghana, London, Madrid, Paris, Prague, and Shanghai.

Going Green: What You Can Do at NYU
Kimmel Center 912  60 Washington Square South
'Sustainability' is the word on everybody's tongues, but what does it have to do with you - and what does it mean for NYU? Members of NYU's Sustainability Task Force will share expert knowledge about the "greening" of higher education and the steps NYU is taking to shrink our eco-footprint and foster a campus culture of sustainability. Learn how to apply for a Green Grant for an operational efficiency, public engagement or applied research project, how to get involved in green organizations on campus, best practices for recycling and energy conservation both within and out of residence halls, and more! Attendees will also get a sneak preview of the brand-new Student's Guide to Sustainability at NYU.
Safety in the City
Kimmel Center 803     60 Washington Square South
New to the City? Don't be afraid, but don't be a victim either! Find out about ways to reduce your chances of becoming a victim of crime. Learn about crime prevention series available to NYU students, as well as how to know "what to look for." Presented by the Office of Public Safety.

3:30PM
Getting Involved: Community Service
Kimmel Center 704 J     60 Washington Square South
NYC is full of opportunities to volunteer and the Office of Student Activities (OSA) is your link to service projects of every kind. From ongoing opportunities and one-day experiences to long-term leadership, if you want to make a difference in your community, be sure to attend this workshop.

4:00PM
Students with Children Presentation
Kimmel Center 800 Series     60 Washington Square South
Are you a new NYU student and a parent? Interested in meeting other students with children? Join us for a presentation on resources and services available to NYU students with children.

5:00PM
Curtain Call: Broadway (and more!) on a Budget
Kimmel Center Shorin 802     60 Washington Square South
Learn how to get the best deals on tickets to Broadway and Off-Broadway shows, sports events, movies, music, opera and dance events, the NYU Skirball Center and more! Plus, find out how to score free tickets to events across NYC! Hosted by NYU Ticket Central.

Musical Neighborhood Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby     60 Washington Square South
Take the first step in making the most of your musical experience over the next four years with this tour of the best spots to hear live music in Greenwich Village. Also known as "Little Bohemia", the Village is one of New York's most notable neighborhoods for its diverse selection of musical venues. Whether you're into Jazz, Rock, Hip-Hop or Blue-Grass, we'll let you in on all the best places to hear your favorite music.

5:30PM
Double Decker Bus Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby     60 Washington Square South
See the sights of NYC from the comfort of a double decker bus. On this sightseeing tour you will ride past sights such as Times Square, the Empire State Building and more! Tickets are only $5.00 and can be purchased at Ticket Central starting August 24th. ID required. Co-sponsored by Graduate Student Life at the Student Resource Center, Office of Residential Life, and the Office for International Students and Scholars (OISS).

6:00PM
Tel Aviv Cafe
Bronfman Center     7 East 10th Street
Please join us for an intimate evening filled with student and professional performances, Turkish coffee, Middle Eastern music, delicious food, friends, and more

7:00PM
Karaoke Night
Kimmel Center 802     60 Washington Square South
Like to perform? Have fun? Get crazy? Well, this is the place to be--it's Karaoke Night at NYU! Come to hang out, perform, listen, or sing along. Cosponsored by Commuter Circle

Transfer Neighborhood Outings: Soho Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby     60 Washington Square South
Want to meet other transfer students living in your residence hall or in area neighborhoods? Curious to know about places to hang out, where to shop for food, and best shortcuts to campus? This walking tour is guided by Transfer Ambassadors who have lived in the area and will share their secrets and advice about living in Soho. Please bring your own MetroCard or $4 for your round-trip subway fare.

8:00PM
NYU Portraits: Voices of a People
NYU Skirball Center   566 LaGuardia Place
This event seeks to bring to light little known "voices" from U.S. history, by giving public expression to rebels, dissenters, and visionaries from our past and present. Voices intends to celebrate America's unsung heroes and create a vibrant and colorful evening where history comes to life to invigorate our present.
9:00PM
NYU Presents: A Capella - live in concert!
Kimmel Center Rosenthal Pavilion 60 Washington Square South
Have a love for live music? Interested in seeing some of NYU's hottest talent? Come check out a selection of NYU's A Capella groups in this first ever NYU A Capella concert! Performers include groups such as: Shine, Mixtapes, Cleftomaniacs, Mass Transit, Vocabolics, and Ani V'ata.

The Game
Kimmel Center Commuter Lounge 60 Washington Square South
Some call it “mafia,” NYU calls it “The Game.” Everyone calls it contagiously fun! Come learn, play, or just watch while you meet new people and have a great time.

Thursday, September 3, 2009

9:00AM
Student Affairs Open Houses: Student Resource Center
Kimmel Center 210 60 Washington Square South
NYU has a vast array of student services and resources to provide student support, promote student engagement, and help you make the most out of your NYU experience. Stop by this open house to meet staff members and find out more about how this office can enrich your student life.

10:30AM
Ally and LGBT International Students Brunch
Kimmel Center 602 60 Washington Square South
Enjoy breakfast and discussion to learn about the resources NYU has to support Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender (LGBT) and ally international students. Sponsored by the Office of International Students and Scholars and the Office of LGBT Student Services.

11:00AM
Alternative Breaks Program
Kimmel Center 704 J 60 Washington Square South
Last year, over 190 students traveled across the world to spend their winter and spring breaks working with various host communities on such issues as literacy, poverty, homelessness, racism, immigration, disaster relief, and the environment. Join the OSA Alternative Breaks Advisory Board and learn about the Alternative Breaks Program and ways to get involved.

CityFest Vendor Fair
Kimmel Center E & L 60 Washington Square South
Being a student has its perks! Come and pick up information and samples from vendors around NYU who give student discounts. Find out great places to eat, shop, and hang out, and enter to win amazing raffle prizes from our vendors. Hosted by NYU Campus Services, Campus Cash and Ticket Central.

Getting Involved: Diversity & Social Justice
Kimmel Center 808 60 Washington Square South
This interactive workshop will provide information about how to get involved with diversity and social justice programs at NYU’s Center for Multicultural Education and Programs, enabling you to empower yourself and those around you.

Going Green: NYU Recycles: Beyond the three R’s
Kimmel Center 912 60 Washington Square South
Green Maps chart green living, natural, cultural and social resources in communities around the world. A new partnership is forming between NYU Bobst Library and the eco-cultural communications organization behind the movement, Green Map System. Find out how you can get involved, and take away a Green Apple Map that will help you explore, enjoy and connect with green resources throughout NYC!

Smart Money Management
Kimmel Center 909 60 Washington Square South
Experts estimate that most American consumers waste 20%-30% of their money due to poor spending habits and poor planning - students are no different! Presented by the NYU FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, the program will show you how to create a spending plan, explain how you can set realistic goals, highlight several ways you can track your spending, and expose budget busters that could destroy your spending plan.
12:00PM
Judaism in One Hour
Bronfman Center
7 East 10th Street
Join the amazing Rabbi Yehuda Sarna for a crash course on Jewish history, art, religion, philosophy and contemporary life over a lunch of international Jewish dishes.

On the Go: Navigating the Subway, Bus and Campus Transportation Systems
Kimmel Center 912 60 Washington Square South
So you want to ride the subway without looking like a tourist? Come and learn what to do, what not to do, the cheapest way to ride, and how to make yourself the safest possible rider when you use New York City buses, subways, and trains. Also learn how to benefit from NYU’s Campus Transportation Service trolleys, buses, and vans, and how to ride FREE by just showing your NYUCard!

1:00PM
Bobst 201
Bobst Library
70 Washington Square South
Want to get a jump start on your research? This session is more than just a library tour. Professional librarians will acquaint you with online resources (catalog, databases, electronic journals, etc.) available via NYU Libraries website. Space is limited to first 70 students.

Nirvana: The Art of Meditation
Kimmel Center 405
60 Washington Square South
Meditation can lessen stress, keep you focused, and improve your health. Come to this workshop led by NYU Counseling and Behavioral Health Services, to learn the basics of finding your own personal moment of nirvana in the chaos that can be life in college and the big city. Other methods of stress relief will also be discussed.

NYU Swing Dance Society's "Swingin' in the Park"
Washington Square Park
The NYU Swing Dance Society will be holding a swing lesson in Washington Square Park on the afternoon of September 3rd. The swing officers will be teaching the basics of East Coast Swing and showing off a few moves of their own! So come to West side of Washington Square Park for a swingin’ time!

West Village Walking Tour
Kimmel Center 602
60 Washington Square South
Explore the West Village’s queerest cafes, venues, and historic sites! The walking tour takes you from the center of NYU lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and ally activity, through the West Village, and ends at the NYC LGBT Community Center. Pre-registration encouraged due to space restraints at www.nyu.edu/lgbt/welcomeweek.html

2:00PM
Global U: Studying Abroad at NYU
Kimmel Center 900 Series
60 Washington Square South
NYU offers its students numerous study abroad opportunities. Attend this session to learn specific details about NYU’s university-wide academic centers in in Berlin, Buenos Aires, Florence, Ghana, London, Madrid, Paris, Prague, and Shanghai.

Have We "MET"?
Kimmel Center 900 Series
60 Washington Square South
Get the inside scoop on The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the largest museum in the Western Hemisphere, right here in your new hometown. Find out about events, opportunities for involvement, and careers with Met staff and members of its College Group at the Met.

Going Green: Biking the Big Apple
Kimmel Center 909
60 Washington Square South
Biking in the city is a great for the planet, your wallet, and even your glutes! A representative from the bike/pedestrian advocacy group Transportation Alternatives will cover the basics of biking NYC including traffic regulations, safety advice, and the best places to ride, park, shop for gear, and connect with other cyclists. NYU students will also discuss bike culture and resources on campus.

Laughter: The Best Medicine
Kimmel Center 803
60 Washington Square South
Moving to a new place can be fun, exhilarating, and stressful. But don’t let it get to you. Learn to relax after a hard day of classes or work — with laughter! Laraaji Nadabrahmananda presents this amazing program that will teach you how to use laughter as a relaxation technique.

3:30PM
A Queer History Lesson at The Stonewall Inn
Kimmel Center 602
60 Washington Square South
Join us for this annual event where we will visit the historical Stonewall Inn --- a NYC LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender) landmark and the birthplace of the modern queer rights movement! Preregistration encouraged due to space restraints at www.nyu.edu/lgbt/welcomeweek.html Stonewall Inn, 53 Christopher Street or the LGBT Office, Kimmel Center, Suite 602
4:00PM
Bobst 101
Bobst Library Lobby  70 Washington Square South
This tour is designed to give you a snapshot view of the layout of Bobst Library, familiarize you with the library's key collections, and inform you about online and in-library services. Information on more detailed classes offered during the semester will also be provided.

Finding God at NYU
Kimmel Center 808  60 Washington Square South
NYU offers a great variety of opportunities to get connected with religious and spiritual communities, services, and leadership opportunities. Don't miss this program, where University Chaplains will offer resources for finding God at NYU.

Green Grants Symposium
Kimmel Center 909  60 Washington Square South
NYU Green Grants Symposium - Presentations from project leaders of "Green Grants," campus projects developed and led by students, faculty and staff, sponsored by the NYU Sustainability Task Force.

5:00PM
Commuter Escape: Arcade and Game Night
Kimmel Center Commuter Lounge  60 Washington Square South
Come join the Commuter Circle crew as we venture into the land of Mario, Rock Band, Wii Sports, board games and much more! Open to everyone!!

Curtain Call: Broadway (and more!) on a Budget
Kimmel Center Shorin 802  60 Washington Square South
Learn how to get the best deals on tickets to Broadway and Off-Broadway shows, sports events, movies, music, opera and dance events, the NYU Skirball Center and more! Plus, find out how to score free tickets to events across NYC! Hosted by NYU Ticket Central.

Village Church Walking Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby  60 Washington Square South
Spend an hour touring the Village viewing both historical and modern churches. Learn what each church has to offer, and what roles they play in the community. Meet other people looking for Christian community around NYU while orienting yourself to the city. Sponsored by the Navigators Christian Fellowship. With option to extend for an extra hour if students are interested.
Contact person is student leader cabousamak@nyu.edu Cassaundra Abousamak

6:00PM
Musical Neighborhood Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby  60 Washington Square South
Take the first step in making the most of your musical experience over the next four years with this tour of the best spots to hear live music in Greenwich Village. Also known as "Little Bohemia", the Village is one of New York's most notable neighborhoods for its diverse selection of musical venues. Whether you're into Jazz, Rock, Hip-Hop or Blue-Grass, we'll let you in on all the best places to hear your favorite music.

Protestant Praise Night
Kimmel Center 914  60 Washington Square South
The Christian community on campus is vibrant and unified in our diversity. Come worship God, meet fellow Christians, and be welcomed into the Christian community at NYU during this Welcome Week Protestant Praise Night! This night of worship, fun, and fellowship is facilitated by the Protestant Ministries Office in conjunction with the multiple Christian Fellowships on campus. Let's enjoy Jesus together!

7:00PM
Transfer Neighborhood Outings: South Street Seaport Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby  60 Washington Square South
Want to meet other transfer students living in your residence hall or in area neighborhoods? Curious to know about places to hang out, where to shop for food, and best shortcuts to campus? This walking tour is guided by Transfer Ambassadors who have lived in the area and will share their secrets and advice about living downtown. Please bring your own MetroCard or $4 for your round-trip subway fare.

8:00PM
6th Annual Casino Night
Kimmel Center E & L, Rosenthal  60 Washington Square South
Come take IRHC's money and use it to cash in on great prizes. Free refreshments, cool tunes, Vegas style acts, flamenco dancers and social casino-like atmosphere provided.
9:00PM
Comedy Night with Andrew Kennedy & Michelle Buteau
Skirball Center for the Performing Arts
566 LaGuardia Place
A current staple on the Manhattan Comedy Scene, Andrew Kennedy is an electric and inspiring performer who weaves the characters from his life throughout his entire performance. Kennedy has lived in many places including Colombia, Venezuela, and Hong Kong and uses his worldly upbringing as a platform to launch his unique observations on life and family. Opening the show will be accomplished Last Comic Standing alumna, Michelle Buteau. Growing up in a Caribbean household in Trenton, New Jersey and Miami, Florida gave birth to Buteau's exclusive style of urban funk and girl-next-door comedy that's anything but routine. Don't miss this event! Sponsored by the Student Resource Center, the Skirball Center, and the Office of Student Activities.

11:00PM
Comedy Night with Andrew Kennedy & Michelle Buteau
Skirball Center for the Performing Arts
566 LaGuardia Place
A current staple on the Manhattan Comedy Scene, Andrew Kennedy is an electric and inspiring performer who weaves the characters from his life throughout his entire performance. Kennedy has lived in many places including Colombia, Venezuela, and Hong Kong and uses his worldly upbringing as a platform to launch his unique observations on life and family. Opening the show will be accomplished Last Comic Standing alumna, Michelle Buteau. Growing up in a Caribbean household in Trenton, New Jersey and Miami, Florida gave birth to Buteau's exclusive style of urban funk and girl-next-door comedy that's anything but routine. Don't miss this event! Sponsored by the Student Resource Center, the Skirball Center, and the Office of Student Activities.

Friday, September 4, 2009

9:00AM
Student Affairs Open Houses: Student Resource Center
Kimmel Center 210
60 Washington Square South
NYU has a vast array of student services and resources to provide student support, promote student engagement, and help you make the most out of your NYU experience. Stop by this open house to meet staff members and find out more about how this office can enrich your student life.

11:00AM
Citywalks: Neighborhood Walking Tours West Village
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
New York City is one of the most diverse places in the world. By getting out and about in Manhattan you will have the opportunity to experience the diversity of culture, food, music, and people that make the Big Apple such a great place. Join staff and students on a variety of walking tours of Manhattan neighborhoods. Tours are courtesy of the Student Resource Center and the Office of Residential Education. NOTE: If you can’t make the tours during Welcome Week, download them from www.nyu.edu/src and be your own tourguide This tour will be led by Katarina Daub.

Wise Use of Credit Cards
Kimmel Center 808
60 Washington Square South
Using your credit cards wisely might be the most important and beneficial action that you can make towards financial health. The reason for this is simple: high interest rates on credit cards can cost you more than money if you find yourself unable to make your payments on time. So, if you've never had a credit card or had one for years, this workshop will help you in your decision making in using credit in today's economic climate.

12:30PM
Softball and Games in Central Park!
Central Park
Join us for a co-ed softball game and picnic in beautiful Central Park. Bring mitts if you have them. Come to play or just hang out! Meet at the Bronfman Center and register online at www.nyu.edu/bronfman.

1:00PM
Diverse-CITY Cultural Outing
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
The Original Multi-Ethnic Eating Tour: A tour that mixes history and food on the multi-ethnic Lower East Side. Learn about the Jewish East Side, Little Italy and Chinatown as we eat our way through the neighborhood sampling foods traditional to the Dominican Republic, Eastern Europe, China, Italy, and more. Registration for this event is required, please visit www.nyu.edu/welcome.week for more information.

Transfer Outings: Staten Island Ferry Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
Take a trip on the Staten Island Ferry to see the skyline of downtown Manhattan and the Statue of Liberty! This trip will introduce you to New York City as well as your fellow transfer students! Please bring your own MetroCard or $4 for your round-trip subway fare.

1:30PM
Village Scavenger
Kimmel Center 602
60 Washington Square South
Explore the West Village while making new friends in this fun, interactive event! Teams will be formed at arrival so no need to predetermine a group. This event is sponsored by the Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender Student Services...allies are welcomed and encouraged to participate! Winning team will receive a cool prize!

2:00PM
Alternative Breaks Program
Kimmel Center 704 J
60 Washington Square South
Last year, over 190 students traveled across the world to spend their winter and spring breaks working with various host communities on such issues as literacy, poverty, homelessness, racism, immigration, disaster relief, and the environment. Join the OSA Alternative Breaks Advisory Board and learn about the Alternative Breaks Program and ways to get involved.

Global U: Studying Abroad at NYU
Kimmel Center 900 Series
60 Washington Square South
NYU offers its students numerous study abroad opportunities. Attend this session to learn specific details about NYU’s university-wide academic centers in in Berlin, Buenos Aires, Florence, Ghana, London, Madrid, Paris, Prague, and Shanghai.

4:00PM
Citywalks: Neighborhood Walking Tours Union Square
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
New York City is one of the most diverse places in the world. By getting out and about in Manhattan you will have the opportunity to experience the diversity of culture, food, music, and people that make the Big Apple such a great place. Join staff and students on a variety of walking tours of Manhattan neighborhoods. Tours are courtesy of the Student Resource Center and the Office of Residential Education. NOTE: If you can’t make the tours during Welcome Week, download them from www.nyu.edu/src and be your own tourguide!

Jewish LGBT Walking Tour
Bronfman Center
7 East 10th Street
Learn about LGBT programming at the Bronfman Center while exploring the village! Meet at the Bronfman Center (7 East 10th Street) at 4 pm.

5:00PM
Citywalks: Neighborhood Walking Tours West Village
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
New York City is one of the most diverse places in the world. By getting out and about in Manhattan you will have the opportunity to experience the diversity of culture, food, music, and people that make the Big Apple such a great place. Join staff and students on a variety of walking tours of Manhattan neighborhoods. Tours are courtesy of the Student Resource Center and the Office of Residential Education. NOTE: If you can’t make the tours during Welcome Week, download them from www.nyu.edu/src and be your own tourguide! This tour will be led by Katarina Daub

Transfer Outings: Magnolia Bakery Tour
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
Come taste New York’s most famous cupcake at Magnolia Bakery in the West Village! First featured on Sex and the City, this cupcake has since appeared on Saturday Night Live's "Lazy Sunday" skit as well as in the movie Prime. This is a great opportunity to connect with new AND returning transfer students at NYU! The event is B.Y.O.C. (Buy Your Own Cupcake) and they cost $1.75 each. Meet in the Kimmel Center Lobby.

6:00PM
Citywalks: Neighborhood Walking Tours Greenwich Village
Kimmel Center Lobby
60 Washington Square South
New York City is one of the most diverse places in the world. By getting out and about in Manhattan you will have the opportunity to experience the diversity of culture, food, music, and people that make the Big Apple such a great place. Join staff and students on a variety of walking tours of Manhattan neighborhoods. Tours are courtesy of the Student Resource Center and the Office of Residential Education. NOTE: If you can’t make the tours during Welcome Week, download them from www.nyu.edu/src and be your own tour guide!

7:00PM
Shabbat Friday Night Services
Bronfman Center
7 East 10th Street
Student-run Reform and Conservative Shabbat services at the Bronfman Center. Orthodox Shabbat Services at 19 West 4th Street. Come to the Bronfman Center at 6:00 pm if you'd like to schmooze with students and staff.

8:00PM
Shabbat Friday Night Dinners
Bronfman Center
7 East 10th Street
Enjoy Free Shabbat Meals at both the Bronfman Center and at the Weinstein Kosher Cafeteria. After dinner, students can either go to NYU's famous Beach Ball or stick around for an Oneg at the Bronfman Center.

Shabbat Friday Night Luau: Pre Beach Ball Dinner
Bronfman Center
7 East 10th Street
Come get “leid” at this causal, Hawaiian-styled Friday night dinner. Enjoy a FREE Shabbat meal and “pre-party” before the Beach Ball with mock-tails and punch. Please pre-register online.
The Beach Ball
Kimmel Center E & L, Rosenthal 60 Washington Square South
Join your fellow undergrads at NYU’s re-creation of Coney Island and the Caribbean! Two floors of dancing, two DJs, great food, and lots to do! Come join the entire new student class for this last beach party of the summer.

Saturday, September 5, 2009
Shabbat Trot of the Lower East Side
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join Shabbat Trot as we learn about the Lower East Side's fascinating transformation from the home of thousands of Jewish immigrants to one of Manhattan's hippest neighborhoods.

9:15AM
Shabbat Orthodox Saturday Morning Services
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join the Bronfman Center for Shabbat Orthodox Saturday Morning Services

10:00AM
Shabbat Egalitarian Saturday Morning Services
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join other NYU students for Shabbat Egalitarian Morning Services.

12:30PM
Shabbat Lunch at Weinstein
Weinstein Hall 11 University Place
Join us for lunch following Shabbat morning services!

7:15PM
Shabbat Afternoon Egalitarian Services
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join other NYU students for Shabbat Afternoon Egalitarian Services

7:30PM
Shabbat Afternoon Orthodox Services
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join other NYU students for Shabbat Afternoon Orthodox Services

8:00PM
6th Annual FYRE & ICE
Founders Hall Courtyard 120 East 12th Street
Come enjoy hot entertainment and cool ice cream with fellow incoming freshmen at this 6th annual event. Rock out to some great music with the chance to win some awesome prizes!

8:30PM
Havadallah Service
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Join other students for Havdallah Services

Monday, September 7, 2009
11:00AM
Bronfman Center Coney Island Beach Party
Bronfman Center 7 East 10th Street
Come to Coney Island before it's torn down! Have a beach of a good time. Join us as we celebrate Labor Day weekend the right way! Meet at the Bronfman Center, bring your subway card, and please RSVP online at www.nyu.edu/Bronfman.